Background

The Yocona Area Council, along with many community and corporate sponsors are pleased and honored to invite you to participate in the Council's 35th Annual Boy Scout Golf Tournament. This tournament is considered by many as Northeast Mississippi's premier charitable golf outing!

The tournament will be a four-person scramble event limited to 23 teams (92 players). The entry fee of $200 per player. Tournament mulligans can be purchased for $10 each/2 maximum. However, buy two at $20 and get a Red Tee for $5.

Today, more than ever, it's great knowing that Scouting is still going strong, still helping our youth grow up to become good Americans and to be prepared. Your participation will help us develop young people into capable and responsible well-adjusted adults while giving them a program which is fun and challenging.
